

Birds Acceptable for WNV Testing

American Crow – The American crow is about 18” long, glossy black with black bill and black legs. Crows can be found in many different habitats; farmlands, suburbs parks and cities.

Blue Jay – The blue jay is about 11” long. It has a black bill, bright blue wings with black bars, blue tail, black ‘necklace’, and white belly. It also has a blue crest. Blue jays can be found in a variety of habitats including suburbs.

American Robin – The American Robin is about 10” long with a gray-brown back, yellow bill, and brick red breast. The female may be paler overall. The robin is commonly found in the suburbs, often in lawns and landscaped areas.